“An Inn to return to and recommend to others”

Val and John M., Shrewsbury, UK

“What a perfect place to stay in Gettysburg”
Sue C., Mt. Holly, NJ

In-town convenience and gracious accommodation make the perfect combination for your stay in Gettysburg. The Brickhouse Inn, located in Gettysburg's downtown historic district, is an 1898 three story brick Victorian (above) and the adjacent c.1830 historic Welty House (left). Parlors and guest rooms feature family heirlooms and selected antiques reminiscent of the 1800s. Original wood floors and chestnut woodwork complete the warm atmosphere of a family home.

Gettysburg ... discover its history and charm.

Guest rooms in The Brickhouse Inn and Welty House were created with your comfort in mind. Named for states represented in the Battle of Gettysburg, each room has its own distinctive personality, from Georgian simplicity to Victorian flair and Country charm. Choose a room with queen size bed, private bathroom, individually controlled air-conditioning and ceiling fans – a bay window or a private porch/balcony with rockers, a gas-log fire or electric stove.

"Quiet, calm, elegant and truly a treat"
Michael and Ruthann J., Rio Medina, TX

Breakfast at The Brickhouse Inn is plentiful and delicious. The menu changes daily but always includes: homemade breads and muffins; seasonal fresh fruit; juices, special teas and coffee blends; a freshly prepared hot entrée. Save room for our Pennsylvania Dutch shoofly pie or seasonal fruit tarts. Enjoy afternoon lemonade or iced tea, and homemade cookies on the patios and porches.

The Inn is within walking distance of restaurants, gift and antique shops as well as area attractions including battlefield tours and the National Cemetery. Whatever the season, activities abound, including golf, horseback riding, downhill skiing and guided history tours. Visit a nearby state park for a picnic, take a driving tour of scenic Adams County or slow down indoors browsing the area's shops filled with Civil War collectibles. If you enjoy walking or jogging, the National Battlefield Park is a few steps behind the Inn, where you can circle Culp's Hill, or explore more sites. Enjoy a wonderful mix of history and culture.

"Unquestionably the finest B&B we've experienced"
